

soundcamp

5

Festival of sound and ecology
at Stave Hill Ecological Park

International Dawn Chorus Day 2018

12pm Saturday 5th - 4pm Sunday 6th May

Join us for a free program of arts and nature workshops, walks, talks and performances

Survival games with bird hats (ADB) • Bat walk (Iain Boulton) • Pit fired clay (Shane Waltener) • DIY photography (Ky Lewis) • Reveil round-the-earth broadcast (SC) • Audio mixing (Hannah Kemp-Welch) • Dawn Chorus Bird Walk (David Darrell-Lambert) • New sounds of Amazonia (Izabela Dłużyk) • Buried tapes (Alex Spence, Brigitte Hart) • "oh don't you hear that turtle dove / way off in yonder lone pine" (Noah Angell) • Listening to nature in wartime (Michael Guida) • Storytelling for earthly survival (Donna Haraway, Fabrizio Terranova) • Japan bird census (Cyberforest) • Foraging (Peckham Pickler) • Hackoustics (Tom Fox)

Food, refreshments, coffee, cake

All welcome - visitor and camping info:
<https://soundcamplondon2018.eventbrite.co.uk>

